We sincerely hope that in years to come as you turn through this book you may recapture the joye of your high school days. We hope you may see again in your hearts your classmates, with whom you spent four happy
years, and your teachers, who worked so hard and wanted so much of success for you.

Class Prophecy

June 9, 1960.

Dear Kenneth,

I am writing to you from Paris. Following is an account of my trip so far.

I took a Benninghoff's Cab to the airport where I was to catch the three-fifteen flight to New York. As the passengers got off the plane, I recognized Barbara Blandford and Annette Warner, who had just arrived from Florida for a visit. While talking to them, I learned that Jean Freeman and Janice Phillips were honeymooning in Florida. After boarding the plane, I discovered that the air hostess for this flight was Jackie Rouse and that the plane was in the capable hands of Jerry Cole and Jimmy Thompson. During the course of conversation, Jackie informed me that there would be an hour's wait in Washington. By the time we landed I was ready to eat. After inquiring, I was told that the best eating establishment was Quinn's Burger Palace. When I arrived, I was surprised to see so many familiar faces. I was invited to sit with Senators Luther Eastwood and Robert Burnette. Seated across from us were Chief Justice of the Supreme Court Joseph Phillips and Congressman Edgar Gaskins. As I was leaving, Oscar Kafer and Robert Kennel, the world renowned lawyers of the day, drove up in their red and black limousines, chauffeured by Johnny Albritten and Ben Epps. As it was time for my plane to leave, I had to hurry back to the airport. Just before my plane took off, a D-46 arrived from Honolulu carrying Pat Simonds and her troupe of Hawaiian dancers. I recognized Barbara Edwards, Jean Acree, Betty Jacques, Etta Mozingo, Ola Cutherell, and Lyllis Freeman.

On the plane I dined with Dr. Sandy Tuten. Sandy told me that he is a resident physician at Johns Hopkins Hospital where Gail Hamilton, Sharon Bolin, and Marilyn Watson are nurses. I said good-by to Sandy at the airport and caught a cab to the port terminal. We passed Carnegie Hall where posters proclaimed that Ivey Heath, the great concert pianist, is playing this week. I guess you know that he married June Sellers. After learning that I was from New Bern, the cab driver was eager to tell me about the former New Bernians now residing in New York. He told me that Frank Rawls was now mayor of New York, and Walter Smith and Johnny Hrin were the Giants' most valuable players. He called my attention to the skyscraper which housed McCotter's Printing and Office Supply. I remembered that Graham Williams was the bookkeeper and the two Jeans were secretaries for this establishment.

As soon as I arrived at the port terminal, I boarded the "U.S. Bear Cub," proudly captained by Gatesy Matthews. She was assisted by Jimmy Gaskins, first mate; Dellen Holt, second; and Kay Heilig and Marion Herrington, stewards. The maintenance crew included: "Fish" Nelson, chief engine oiler; Charles Stokes and Boots Whitford as Fish's assistants; and Doug Nelson, wireless operator. The ship was navigated by Cecil Parker.

The first day I was aboard I was seasick and was forced to see the ship's doctor, Brinkley Lewis, who administered the "Keep-The-Urk-Inside" pills discovered by the world famous Charles Smith.

While aboard the ship I was served delicious food, prepared by the ship's chef, Steve Mullen. After dinner, we danced to the heavenly music of Larry Blythe's orchestra. Other members of the orchestra were Jackie Wetherington, Walter Spruill, and Gunhilde Gunnerson. The main feature of the floor show was the famous Hollywood dancing team, Marie Eubanks and Carl Coley.

On Sunday, I attended the church services led by Emma Ruth Bennett, who was assisted by Olivia Armstrong and Adrienne Prevost.

We docked in Liverpool and I journeyed to Paris where I stayed in the swank "Gay Parisian," owned by Helen Kafer and Betty Kellum and managed by Harriet Hobby. The bonbon shop of the hotel is in the capable hands of Ellen Brinson and Helen Pipkin. Honeymooning for the second time at the hotel were Sylvia Jenks and Wanda Rhodes.

The next day I toured Paris, guided by Richard Rice. In the Louvre I saw masterpieces by Anne Jordan and Jo Gardner. We visited the American embassy which had been decorated by Elizabeth Matthis. At the embassy I met Ambassador John Mason. Among his associates were Betty Gray, Jimmy Fulcher, Pat Wood, and William Wells. John told me that Sula Baches, accompanied by Christine Joseph and Tommy Caldwell, had just stopped by on her way to Greece.

We stopped at Ray Moore's sidewalk cafe for lunch. Our table was served by Barbara Newsome and Susan Dickens, very chic in the latest creations for "les bonnes." As we were sitting there Foreign Legion Recruiting Officers Shirley Banks and Jim Mitchell stopped to talk. They told us that Rosa Gardner, Judy Fisher, Clifford Harris and the Pridgen brothers had just enlisted. They informed me that Joe Mac Harper and Frank Croft were now in Trieste.

After lunch we journeyed to the Eiffel Tower. We were taken to the top of the tower by Allen Joyner. From the tower I saw a breathtaking view of Paris.

Later in the afternoon, we visited the French countryside. We passed Alton Johnson's famous pheasant farm. We also passed the beautiful farms owned by Kenneth Tyndall and John Willis. I wish I could describe the countryside to you—maybe next letter.

The tour ended in time for us to dress for the evening. Our first stop for the evening was Le Cafe des Peches owned by Jimmy Thomas. The charming hostess was Carol Gryb. She is in her element now since in speaking French, she does not have to stop for breath. I was seated near Bettie Bland, a famous Paris model. The rockettes in the floor show were Lorraine Gooding, Patti Wetherington, Barbara Williams, Betty Wells, Marie Alligood, and Barbara Braddy.

After dinner I went to Le Cinema, operated by Bobby Lewis and Herbert Rawls. Tickets were sold by Carol Davis. I was ushered to my seat by Frances Brinson. The other ushers were Mary Elizabeth White, Ruth Jones, and Edna Cole. The show being presented for the evening was "The Swan," danced by Jean Wright. Other ballerinas were Bessie Burroughs, Shirley Cayton, and Mildred Gray. After the performance, I attended a party given in Jean's honor by Mary Alice Wetherington. The receiving line was made up of Barbara Riggs, Thurman Stocks, Ronald Tibbets, Robert Purifoy, and Jimmy Hancock. There are no words to describe the wonderful time I am having.

Wish you were here.

Love,

Bears Defeat Kinston By 20-14 Score; Win N.E.C. Championship

The New Bern Bears rallied for two touchdowns in the last quarter to defeat arch rival Kinston by a score of 20-14 before a crowd of over 7000 madly cheering fans in Kafer Park on November 13. The victory established the Bears as champions of the North Eastern Conference and gained them a berth in the battle for the state championship.

The Bears rode to victory behind the excellent pin point passing of Preacher Parker, who stepped back and flipped a long touchdown pass to Captain Robert Kennel that provided ed back as a result of a penalty and Burnette carrying the ball on the play that set up the winning touchdowns.

In the offensive blocking department Billy Atkinson was unequaled in the New Bern backfield. Billy broke through the opposition's line to throw the Red Devils for several losses and his blocking was definitely one of the major factors in inspiring victory.

Win First Leg In the District Playoff

The New Bern Bears won the first game in their bid for state championship honors November 20 when they defeated Oxford Orphanage on their home field by a score of 22-13.

The game was another team victory for the Bears with the entire offensive backfield and defensive line playing outstanding ball for the four quarters. At the start of the game Oxford was expected to put up one of the finest displays of football seen before the Bears this season but New Bern strangled this threat with their outstanding play on the field. Oxford was in reality one of the best coached teams that the Bears have faced this season and they displayed this with exhibitions by players such as Steve Dean, who was easily the star of the Red Devils.

In the third quarter the Red Devils, in an effort to stop the passing of Parker, threw up a 10 man line against the Bears but this resulted in the New Bern pass receivers being out in the open and Parker's passing was just as effective as ever. From the standpoint of the spectators on the sidelines the game would be at a 7-7 tie at the intermission but the New Bern offense proved this different. The touchdown resulted in three last being the tie breaker.

The first of these came when the Bears had been set back a result of a 15 yard penalty. Parker was rushing the Oxford line but managed off a jump pass that was completed to Doug Sasser and was the 24. On the next play completed to Robert Ke win. The combination of a hard running back-field and a strong forward line proved their point again. A small squad of football players from the Chowan College Freshman class in Kafer Park October 9 beat the Bears in the largest crowd of the current season. The Bears defeated their opponents, by a 19 to 0 score. Billy Atkinson, Will Jones, and Robert Jones. The Bears' powerful offense at the tie did not waste any time in running up the score from the opening kickoff. The offensive play was high-lited by a forty-three yard pass for a touchdown from Preacher Parker to right end Doug Sasser. Duane Parker, George Slaughter,

BEARS DEFEAT ROANOKE RAPIDS BY 20-6 MARGIN

The New Bern High School football team got revenge at Roanoke Rapids week before last for a previous defeat when they handed the Yellow Jackets a one-sided 20 to 6 defeat on the Roanoke gridiron.

The Bruins gained control of the ball early in the game when the Jackets were forced to quick kick after making no headway against the stout New Bern line. The ball landed on the 19 yard line from where the Bears drew a 15 yard penalty, placing the ball on their own 4 yard line with 96 yards to go to pay dirt.

From that point, Preacher Parker, New Bern's ace signal caller, took control of the game and moved the ball down field in a series of 15 plays. Slaughter and Burnette carried the load on the ground while Captain Robert Kennel snagged most of Parker's accurate aerials. Parker scored with New Bern's first tally of the evening when he skirted his own left end for 15 yards. Burnette's try for the conversion was

New Bern's second touchdown came in the second quarter when the Jackets were again forced to punt on third down. This time the ball sailed into the end zone and by legal rule the Bruins gained possession of the ball on the 20 yard line with first down and ten to go. In 13 plays the Bruins moved 80 yards with Parker scoring from the three yard line on another end around. Burnette's second try of the evening was good and the Bears possessed a 14 to 0 lead at half time.

After a brilliant band display at half time, the two teams returned to the field and the Yellow Jackets kicked off to New Bern to start the action.

New Bern moved the ball up to their own 36 yard line from where they lost possession on a fumble. This time the Yellow Jackets were determined to score. Robert Deaver, Roanoke quarterback, pulled the New Bern defense to his right and passed to Tommy Williamson at left end who scampered the remaining distance to pay dirt. The try
